Conference Objective

- This Sixth Maghreb Conference on Desalination and Water Treatment provides an excellent forum for scientists, professionals and technologists from the World, especially from North Africa countries. It will be devoted to fresh water for the Maghreb where the situation is dramatically more serious with rapidly increasing population and much lower rainfall. The following objectives will be discussed:
- Present state of the art of desalination and water treatment,
- Research and applied work in desalination and water treatment,
- Needs for Maghreb countries in research, formation and cooperation.

Conference Topics

- Desalination in remote and arid areas,
- Wastewater treatment and reuse,
- Reverse osmosis, Ultrafiltration, Nanofiltration,
- Electrodialysis,
- Membrane distillation,
- Thermal desalination processes,
- Membrane preparation and characterization,
- Pretreatment (fouling and scaling, removal of specific compounds), membrane processes,
- Post-treatment of desalinated waters (disinfection, calco-carbonic equilibrium, corrosion),
- Bacteriological aspects of water,
- Chemistry and thermodynamic of saline waters,
- Economic aspects of desalination, renewable energy, nuclear energy, energy recovery,
- Desalination and the environment.
